Vote Note: At the heart of the Linda Mills re-election Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation is the issuing of RSU's to CEO Peter Zaffino in 2022. The Proxy statement shows Zaffino's 2022 total compensation as approximately $75M. This is due to the inclusion of a $50M special RSU grant that cliff vests in 5 years (November 2027), which was part of a broader employment arrangement entered into in November 2022. His actual 2022 compensation was ~$23 million, which is more inline with peer average. Furthermore, I don't have an issue to the issuance of RSU's as a retention tool for Zaffino. He is a highly sought after CEO and retaining him as CEO is in the best interest of shareholders. As such, I am voting for Linda Mills and the Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation.

Vote Note: The KDP board is aligned with investors, in my opinion, especially given JAB owns over 20% of the stock and they have three board members, who I am voting to keep on. The current CEO Bob Gamgort also recently stepped aside into an exclusive Chairman role, so there is now independence between CEO/Chairman. Bob has been a good CEO and should be valuable as Chairman on the Board, so we should keep him, in my opinion. KDP has also been a well-run company and I don't want to try to fix something that isn't broken by voting against their proposals. Some of the share underperformance in recent years has more to do with broad coffee category weakness, not poor management, in my opinion. Some of the issues with executive compensation were the sign-on payments to the new CEO, but the new CEO checks out well from conversations with those that know him, so I am fine paying up for him.
